

Date: 28 February 2020 (Week 5)

Website of the week

The Raising Children Network is a complete online resource for Australian parents and carers. It offers trusted, reliable, free information on everyday parenting issues from pregnancy through to teens.

What language we should use to communicate with our child at home.

It is very important that you speak, read and write with your child in your native language. You are your child's first and most important educator. Your child will benefit most from learning from you in the language you know best. For more information, click here.

What's on this week at Culture Drop?

We are going to talk about:

- Playgroups in the Ryde Area
- The list of songs we're playing at Culture Drop. You can find them all on YouTube.
 - Open Shut Them song
 - Baby Shark dance
 - Head and Shoulders Knees and Toes
 - The Hokey Pokey song with actions

What's on in your community?

The Power of Play in Nature seminar

The evidence is that play in nature can enhance creativity, bolster mood, lower stress, foster social skills, improve mental acuity, well-being and productivity. For more information, click here.

- Date: Thursday, 5 March 2020
- Time: 4:00pm – 6:30pm
- Venue: The Concourse Theatre, Chatswood
- Register: www.trybooking.com/BHUUT

Did you know?

There are some libraries that stock TOYS? At these libraries, you can borrow toys like you would borrow books or DVDs! For more details and the toy library list, click here.

